Tēnā tātou katoa

This month's newsletter is full of news and new reports and articles.

The Government has announced its planned reforms to the Family Court. Violence against women was a concern for the United Nations when New Zealand presented to the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination Against Women in July. UNICEF NZ produced a briefing paper summarising the common themes from 80 organisations' submissions to the Government's Green Paper for Vulnerable Children. The WHO published a systematic review identifying the prevalence and risk of violence experienced by children with disabilities.

A number of family violence events are being held around New Zealand in the next three months. These include Kia Rangatira te Mahi - Māori best practice hui in Christchurch (August), the White Ribbon Men's Hui in Tairāwhiti (September) and the Women's Refuge conference in Blenheim (October). The World Safety conference in Wellington in early October also includes a session on family violence. All these events are listed in the Upcoming events section, with links to more information.

NEW indicates events listed for the first time this month.
