

National centre for family and whānau violence research and information

Pānui | Newsletter - Issue 94 - June 2020

Kia ora!

As the situation continues to evolve, we update the COVID-19 pages on our website each week. Lots of local and international information is coming through about the “shadow pandemic” of family, whānau and sexual violence.

This month's Pānui also includes a new Issues Paper and upcoming webinar from NZFVC. There are also lots of new research and reports in the library and as always, News and Events to help you stay up to date.

The NZFVC website has had over 100,000 users in the past year! Please do share the Pānui with your networks so people get the latest information to use in their work and lives.
