

National centre for family and whānau violence research and information

Pānui | Newsletter - Issue 97 - October 2020

Kia ora!

Changes are happening at NZFVC. After almost 9 years, Manager Nicola Paton is moving on. We are advertising to fill the role - see advert below. Please share it widely.

Co-Director Robyn Dixon is also finishing at the end of this month after 9 years with NZFVC, to spend more time with family and her many other interests. The rest of the NZFVC team look forward to continuing to provide you with access to family and whānau violence research and information.

Remember to vote by Saturday! See our News article on election policies related to family and whānau violence.

The recording of the webinar we hosted recently, COVID-19 and family and whānau violence: What have we learnt and where to from here? is now available online (link below).

On Thursday 22 October, 11am-12.30pm, Ngā Wai a Te Tūi will be hosting a webinar, Tāne Talks: Ngā piki me ngā heke kei waenganui o te whānau. Further details and how to register are on the NZFVC website.

Stay safe, stay well.
