

National centre for family and whānau violence research and information

Pānui | Newsletter - Issue 110 - May 2022

Kia ora!

May is Budget month, and this year the Minister for the Prevention of Family Violence and Sexual Violence, Marama Davidson, has announced that Budget 2022 will include $114.5 million over four years to support the implementation of Te Aorerekura - the National Strategy to Eliminate Family Violence and Sexual Violence.

While the Wellbeing Budget 2022 has a focus on reforming the health system and addressing climate change, Budget 2022 is also working towards a new approach to public finance. This new approach includes a Justice Cluster - one of two pilots to bring Ministers and agencies together to pursue shared goals. You can read more about Budget 2022 in our News stories.

This Pānui also includes a wealth of opportunities for training, learning and professional development – check out our 'Events' and 'What's new in the library' sections below.

COVID-19 and Te Whare Māori

Links to the COVID-19 and Te Whare Māori pages are now on the main menu bar.

We continue to update the COVID-19 pages on our website regularly as further information comes out about the "shadow pandemic" of family, whānau and sexual violence. To check what's been added recently, see Latest updates.

The COVID-19 section includes Te Whare Māori, by Ngā Wai a Te Tūi Māori and Indigenous Research Centre.
