

National centre for family and whānau violence research and information

Pānui | Newsletter - Issue 112 - July 2022

Kia ora!

We hope that you and your whānau have been keeping well (and dry) during a very wet July.

This month we are starting to see aspects of our national strategy, Te Aorerekura, come to life with the launch of the Tangata Whenua Ministerial Advisory Group and the first Annual National Hui taking place online. It is exciting to see specialist sectors, tangata whenua, communities, researchers and policy makers coming together to start to talk about how we can work together towards realising the moemoeā of Te Aorerekura.

As always, this Pānui includes a wealth of opportunities for training, learning and professional development listed in our 'Events' and 'What's new in the library' sections below.

Ngā mihi nui ki a koe,
Charlotte and the NZFVC team

Tangata Whenua Ministerial Advisory Group for Family Violence and Sexual Violence announced

Eleven experts in whānau Māori wellbeing have been appointed to provide the Government with independent advice on shaping family violence and sexual violence systems and responses that uphold Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

The group will advise the Government directly on best-practice solutions and approaches for working with, and for Māori whānau.
