National centre for family and whānau violence research and information

Pānui | Newsletter - Issue 116 - December 2022

Kia ora!

Nau mai, haere mai and welcome to our final Pānui for 2022.

It feels like it has been a busy end to a busy year as we wrap up projects and start planning for 2023. For some people things will be starting to wind down, while for others the holiday period means delivering services to our communities when they are most in need of support. Whatever your plans, we hope that you all have some time to rest, reflect on the year and spend time with your families and whānau.

In November we hosted a webinar exploring the rights and needs of migrant victim-survivors of family violence within immigration policies and practices. The video and transcript for this webinar are now available on our website.

We wish you all a safe, happy and healthy break and look forward to reconnecting with you all in 2023.

Ngā mihi nui ki a koe,
Charlotte and the NZFVC team

NZFVC wishes you a safe and happy break, reopening 16 January 2023

The Clearinghouse will be closed for the holiday break after Thursday 22 December 2022. We will reopen on Monday 16 January 2023.

Support services for people experiencing violence will still be available over the Christmas break. Contact details for support services are provided on our website.
