

National centre for family, whānau and sexual violence research and information

Pānui | Newsletter - Issue 122 August-September 2023

Kia ora,

Spring has sprung at last! After a long wet Winter the days are getting longer (if not warmer), and the kōwhai are in full bloom and filled with Tūi.

Over the past couple of months, media and the Ministry of Social Development registration of interest for men's behaviour change has brought attention and discussion to programmes for men who use violence. In response, this month the team at the NZFVC have focussed our attention on highlighting key local and international research, resources and updates related to programmes for men who use violence. You can read more about this in our two News Stories below.

The September e-update from Te Puna Aonui also contains information about some significant pieces of work including the publication of an Outcomes and Measurement Framework to support the implementation of Te Aorerekura. This framework will sit alongside the Toiora Whānau Māori Outcomes Framework, which is currently being developed by Te Pūkotahitanga, with outcomes for whānau Māori determined for Māori, by Māori.

We hope you are all keeping well as we head towards the end of a busy year,

Ngā mihi nui ki a koe,
Charlotte and the NZFVC team
